EVALUATION UPDATES

FALL 2020

Legal Values: Law in the time of Catastrophe (LW 3592Z.03) - Professor S. Bandopadhyay

Evaluation: The primary mode of evaluation is a research paper worth 75% of the final grade. Students will determine their own paper topics in consultation with the instructor.

- Paper proposal: 1000 words max., excluding notes and bibliography (20%)
  - Footnotes and bibliography need not be formatted according to the McGill Guide, but should be accurate and consistent enough for me to find the source.
  - Proposals must be uploaded to the Osgoode Student Services Dropbox by 3:30 pm on 21st October 2020.
  - Late-penalty policy: late (proposal) submissions will lose 5 points every 12 hours after the deadline.

- Co-leading readings (10%)
  - During Week 2, students will sign up to co-lead class discussions, with me, during one of the remaining weeks of the course. Everyone in a given group will receive the same grade.

- Final written submission: 7000-7500 words, excluding notes (45%) (no bibliography is required)
  - Footnotes must be formatted according to the McGill Guide.
The research paper must be submitted electronically via Drop Box by 3:30 pm on 7th December 2020.

For questions regarding extensions and late submission for the final research paper, please contact Assistant Dean, Students, Mya Rimon.

The remaining 25% of the total grade will be based on class participation. Attendance, unless specifically excused, is mandatory; this means that, barring accommodation or ad hoc technical difficulties, students will be expected to keep their cameras switched on during class. However, the participation grade is not an ‘attendance mark.’ You will be marked based on the quality of your interventions in class and the degree to which your questions and comments are informed by the readings and your own thoughtful reflection.

WINTER 2021

Administrative Law (LW 2010.04P) – Adjunct Professors A. Dantowitz, A. Gonsalves and B. Van Niejenhuis

Evaluation: Final examination (85%) - take home. Engagement (15%). In compliance with the requirement of an additional evaluation method, students may also opt to prepare a paper on a topic to be approved by the instructors in the range of 15-25 pages (precise page limit and date requirements TBD). In that event, the paper will be weighted as 30% of the final grade, and the final examination will be weighted as 55% of the final grade.
