Syllabus Updates – Winter 2022

December 22, 2021

New Seminars

Comparative Law: Transnational Mining, Development & the Local Rule of Law – LW 3041G.03, catalogue number T46J01 – Wednesdays 2:30-4:30 (Adjunct Professor X. Sierra-Camargo)

Legal Values: Multiculturalism – LW 3593G.03, catalogue number J30Q01, Mondays 2:30-4:30 (Adjunct Professor M. Zucker)

The seminar descriptions are found in the Course Information Tables posted on MyOsgoode under Key Documents, Syllabus and Enrolment tab.

Instructor Changes

Commercial Law 2030.04 – Professor A. Dhir is not available to teach Commercial. Professor B. Geva will be the instructor.

Legal Ethics 2059.03 - Adjunct Professor Leitch is no longer available to teach Legal Ethics. Adjunct Professors Megan Stephens and (still to be finally confirmed) Ida Bianchi are now going to teach it.

Seminar Cancellations

Land Development and Commercial Real Estate Problems 5160W (Adjunct Professor M. Gross)

Legal Values: Diversity and the Corporation (Professor A. Dhir)

Courses/seminars being taught entirely remotely

In addition to the four eLearning Pilots (Evidence with Professor P. Paciocco; Law & Religion with Professor B. Berger; International Criminal Law with Professor H. Matthews; and Legal Values: Law in the #MeToo Era with Professor H. Matthews, the following four courses will no longer be in-person (following the return to in-person, currently set for January 24) but, rather, remote for the entire term.

- Tax Law and Policy Colloquium 5330.03 with Professor of Practice S. Wilkie
- Dispute Settlement 3980.03 with Adjunct Professor S. Kohli
- International Taxation 4150.04 with Professor of Practice S. Wilkie
- Administration of Civil Justice: Issues in Assessment of Litigation and Regulatory Risk 3010.03 with Adjunct Professors Swartz and Podolny.